
Continuing Education Agency

Purpose

This policy identifies Valley School District as an approved in-service education agency.

Scope

This policy applies to Valley School District staff seeking to earn clock hours through District sponsored staff development programs.

Policy

The Valley School District Board of Directors recognizes that an investment in the on-going training of staff is an investment in the success of the District. Therefore, the Valley School District is committed to assisting its staff in earning clock hours through district-sponsored staff development programs. The Valley School District meets the criteria for an approved in-service education agency.

All clock-hour offerings will be approved in advance by the Valley School District Continuing Education Committee. The superintendent or designee will appoint committee members according to RCW 28A.415.040, and develop procedures for the implementation of this policy in accordance with relevant WACs.
